ATTENTION ALL BLACK '57 GOLFERS!
NEW GOLF FORMAT WITH BLUE '57

Greetings Black '57 and best wishes for the New Year - 2010.

Please save the date of Wed, 02 June and plan on playing in the Army - Navy Class of 1957 SCRAMBLE – CLASSIC vice Ryder Cup competition. It will be played at Fort Belvoir, VA.

The format this year will be a scramble and Army and Navy players will be on the same team based on general handicap information. There will still be the usual competitions, such as longest drive, closest to the pin, lowest score, etc. However, the Black & Blue Tourney Trophy has been retired.

This is an OPPORTUNITY FOR GOLFERS OF ALL ABILITIES and we encourage everyone to come on out and give it a chance. Members of the Black '57 golf squad interested in playing are requested to contact me.

We are penciled in for a series of tee times starting at 1230 on Wednesday, 02 June, on the Gunston Course at Fort Belvoir. Should another smallish golf group book for that date, we will be placed with them on the Woodlawn Course and have a shotgun start at 1400.

Please note that our DC Metro Area Class luncheon w/spouses will be on Thursday, 03 Jun. So you can plan on attending both.

More info to follow.

Regards, John Hocker

This year the rally was attended by only three diehard Black '57 types, Hank Hatch, Tom Kehoe, and Nick Monaco. Apparently, they were the only ones who didn't get the memo that sometimes hope doesn't always spring eternal!! But there were some compensating benefits!
