FEATURED SPEAKER AT 02 MARCH LUNCHEON THE HONORABLE EVERETT ALVAREZ, JR.

Everett Alvarez, Jr., a distinguished Naval officer (Retired Commander) and federal government executive, is best known to the public as the first American aviator shot down in North Vietnam while participating in the first air raid on North Vietnam. He was taken prisoner of war on 5 August, 1964, held in North Vietnam for 8 and 1/2 years, until the general release of prisoners on 12 February 1973, making him the second longest held POW in American history.

Mr. Alvarez served in the Naval Air Systems Command until his retirement from the Navy in 1980. In 1981, President Reagan appointed him as Deputy Director of the Peace Corps. Then in 1982, Pres. Reagan appointed him Deputy Director of VA. In 1988 Pres. Reagan appointed him to the Board of Regents of the Uniform Services University of the Health Sciences in Bethesda, MD. Mr. Alvarez served on that Board for 21 years. Mr. Alvarez also served on the President's Task Force to improve health care delivery for veterans and has chaired the VA's CARES (Capital Asset Realignment and Enhancement Study) Commission.

Post government service, Mr. Alvarez was VP for Government services with Hospital Corp of America. In 1987, his own consulting Conwal Inc of McLean, VA and in 2005, he formed another consulting company, Alvarez & Associates, Silver Spring MD.

Mr. Alvarez holds numerous military decorations; the Silver Star, 2 Legions of Merit (with combat V), 2 Bronze Stars (with combat V), Distinguished Flying Cross, and 2 Purple Hearts. Other honors include, being named in 2008 by the Council for Excellence in Government as one of the 25 greatest public servants in the past 25 years and in 2010 he was awarded the Nixon Library Foundation's first "American Hero" award for a lifetime of service to our Nation.

Mr. Alvarez authored two books, Chained Eagle, about his VN captivity and Code of Conduct, about the rebuilding of his life.
